The Daily Union Vedette.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 29, 1866.

"POOR UTAH!"

Poor indeed! Disgracefully poor, when an honest man cannot preempt a portion of its unclaimed earth without placing himself in danger of assassination—when the best and bravest of those who have fought for the flag can be insulted with impunity under its very folds, and ordered away—by the brutal minions of cowardly knaves who never earned a right to anything except a noose of hemp—from the free soil which they, who have defended it, have the best-proved right to claim.

No better, braver, nor more loyal men stand upright in the presence of God than the two, Capt. Brown and Dr. Williamson, subjected to the cowardly outrage of Monday night. Fortunately they are known here. The "I Am" of Utah has not acted up to his usual acme of policy in presuming to interfere with these gentlemen. He has heretofore permitted his cowardly instincts to guide him to the safer course of attacking only such defenceless strangers as might be shot in the back—thrust under the black clods and then trodden down in their graves by those worse than murderers who calumniate the dead. These men will not disappear from our streets accidentally without causing more than a casual remark at the strangeness of their disappearance. They will not lift cold, white, rigid hands in a vain appeal from the river of sealed confessions west of the city. nor will they be cut to pieces with knives and then presented in their shrouds (as the Parish's were) to the public gaze as a terror to "evil doers" without provoking more than a shudder of horror and a faint whisper of disapproval.

Let the Mormon Prophet "send them" where he can and dares, but let him be sure to send them by the most direct route, lest he should reach the judgment seat of God before them and have to wait for his accusers.

These gentlemen are known here not as cringing sycophants to might nor as smiling toadies to power-protected villainy nor high-positioned littleness, but as steady adherents to right, loyal and true men, known to the Mormon people. if not their tyrants, as sans peur et sans reproche. It would be well for "poor Utah" if it could number more among its citizens so nobly endowed with the true wealth of worth as they are.—Such men are needed here to give a living impulse to the dead current of opinions and waken the superstition-tranced thousands gathered here to a consciousness of life's broad aims and purposes. No doubt the arch polygamist would object to such for neighbors—people are apt to object to unflattering comparisons. But he will do well to remember that the noli me tangere of the "Mormon creed" is a rule that can be made to work both ways, and strong hands that do not flinch for a wound may some time close firmly on the blade of his assassin's knife and strike him with its hilt.

Meanwhile, let "poor Utah" wait for time:—

"The mills of God grind slowly,
But they grind exceeding small"

California Items.

Lieutenant Commander Nathaniel W. Ord, United States Navy, died at Santa Barbara on the 18th inst. He was a native of Duxbury, Mass, and was 25 years of age....The Pacific Insurance Company have commenced suit against Frank Soule to collect back excess on amount paid in on internal revenue tax, he having rendered their coin estimate to greenbacks and collected on the full amount....Judge Hoffman has rendered a decision rejecting the claim of H. F. Teschemacher and others for fourteen square leagues at Clear Lake....The State Harbor Commissioners, after examining the thirty plans for a sea-wall, have decided on that submitted by an unknown party, over the signature of "Y——y;" total cost, $2,462,470. It consists of a pyramtdical enbankment of broken stone, sunken to the ready substructure of mud deposit on the bottom of the Bay, laid with a heavy protection wall of cut stone, carried above tidewater, and surmounted with a concrete, to support the sea-wall proper, of ent granite blocks, rising to the level of the grade of streets at the city front.

Mrs. Swisshelm says of Miss Minnie Ream, who received the $10,000 order for a Lincoln statue:

She is a young girl, about twenty, has only been studying her art a few months, never made a statue, has some plaster busts on exhibition in the Capitol, including her own, minus clothing to the waist, has a pretty face, with a turn up nose, bright black eyes, long dark curls and plenty of them, wears a jockey hat and a good deal of jewelry, sees all the members at their lodgings or the reception room in the Capitol, urges her claims fluently and confidently, sits in the galleries, in a conspicuous position, and in a most bewitching dress, while those claims are discussed on the floor, and nods and smiles as a member rises and delivers his opinion on the merits of the case, with the air of a man sitting for his picture, and so she carries the day over Powers and Crawford and Hosmer and who not?

Prof. Agassiz says he found the valley of the Amazon uncommonly fertile, and the climate very healthy. It is his opinion that it will one day become the mart of the world, supporting in comfort 20,000,000 inhabitants.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

Important moves in the Political World.

Gen. Sweeney declines to Participate in the Fenian Proceedings.

Interesting Letter from Henry J. Raymond.

Aspy Bay, Sept. 27.

The equinoctical gale saturday, which was very severe in Newfoundland, greatly damaged the lines East and West of Loas harbor at the head of Fortune Bay. The lines have already been repaired west of that point, and Mr. Mackey. Superintendent of the line, expects to have them working, through immediately.—European news will, it is quite probable, come to hand to-day.

Chicago, Sept. 27.

Flour 15a20c lower; wheat 2a5c higher, closing at $2 23; corn 2c higher.

New York, Sept. 27.

The money market continues abundantly supplied at unchanged rates; the principal feature to-day was the advance of five-twenties from 71 to 109⅜. at which price, however, there were no sales.

The steamer Villa De Paris, to-day, brought 659,000 francs.

Gen. Beauregard came with her as a passenger.

Flour and wheat without a decided change; corn 1a2c better, closing active Sterling firm; gold scarcely so firm.

The Commercial says the stock market is very evidently shaping for active speculations in October.

Rev. Dr. Hawks, an Episcopal divine, died this morning.

Gen. Sweeney publishes a card declining to take any part in the proceedings of the Fenian Brotherhood.

Morgan L Harris has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue of the 8th District of this city, vice Geo. P. Putnam removed removed.

Washington, Sept. 27.

The Navy Department has received advices of the arrival of the United States steamer Mahaska from Tampico, via the Rio Grande, at Pensacola on the 21st, and her commander reports that no Imperial vessels of war had appeared off Tampico or the Rio Grande.—No apprehensions of the blockade were entertained, and American interests had not suffered by the violence of either contending party.

Chicago, Sept. 28.

The New York Times, Evening Post, Troy Whig, Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, Cleveland Herald and Hartford Courant were the only prominent Republican papers originally favoring the Philadelphia movement, although such papers as the Springfield Republican, Cincinnati Commercial, Chicago Journal, &c., had leanings that way. The Philadelphia movement seems now to have lost all its intended force.

The Times says the Democrats have violated the compact, and it now advocates the Constitutional Amendment.—Although it does not support Gov. Fenton, it laterally does not support Hoffman.

The singular trials of Raymond and Weed cause much comment.

The Evening Post hoists Fenton's name and says that old party lines are restored.

The Troy Whig says the Democrats, by their bad faith, have made it impossible for Conservative Republicans to join them, and that the election this year will crush the Democratic party, and it hopes beyond resurrection.

The Buffalo Advertiser still carries Hoffman's name, but its editorials are significant of a change.

The Cleveland Herald supports the regular Republican ticket.

The Hartford Courant keeps silent.

There is not now in the Eastern States a single prominent Republican paper that supports the President's policy.—The President's late tour has produced this result and destroyed the last hope of any good from the Philadelphia movement.

All signs are that the Republican majorities will be overwhelming beyond precedent.

The New York Herald editorially says that Johnson is writing to the Southern Governors that they should accept the Constitutional Amendment lest harder conditions be imposed by Congress.

The Herald says, in that way Johnson will check the Radicals.

Raymond publishes a long communication in response to a request made by several persons that he would become a candidate for Congress. He reviews his course during the past two years, deplores the breach between the Executive and Congress, which he declares might have been easily prevented by concessions on both sides. He says he has nothing in common with the Democratic party and concludes in these words: My past position does not command the approbation of a large body among those who originally gave me their votes, and apart from such an approval so far as it can be had consistently with proper independence of personal opinion a seat in Congress ceases to have for me any attraction or to offer any opportunity for useful public service, and I shall deem it best to consult my own self-respect as well as the sentiments of my constituents, and the interests of the Union cause by withdrawing my name from the canvass altogether.

The President continues under the pressure of the multitude of applications from all quarters, to make appointments and removals daily, many of these have not yet been published, there being no disposition to make them public for the present.

From the River.

The Northwestern Railroad will be completed to Omaha by the 1st of April, thus making railway connection between Chicago and the Plains....A man in Nebraska City claims to have shot 175 bushels of grasshoppers in one day....An Irish laborer was killed in a quarrel by one of his companions in Omaha on the 15th....On the 8th Henry Shotbought was killed by Joseph Deroin at Arago, Nebraska....The Democrats of Nebraska have nominated the following Territorial ticket: For Delegate to Congress, J. Sterling Morton; for member of Congress, Algernon S. Paddock; for Auditor, Frank Murphy; for Treasurer, John S. Seston; for Territorial Librarian, Robert C. Jordan.

Dates of the State Elections.

The following are the dates of the State elections to be held for the ensuing year; also, the officers to be then chosen:

Pennsylvania, October 9.—Governor, twenty-four members of Congress and members of Legislature; a United States Senator to elect.

Ohio, October 9.—Nineteen members of Congress.

Indiana, October 9.—State officers, eleven members of Congress and members of Legislature; a United States Senator to elect in place of Henry S. Lane.

Iowa, October 9.—State officers, six members of Congress and members of Legislature.

West Virginia, October 25.—Governor, three members of Congress and Legislature.

New York, November 6.—Governor, thirty-one members of Congress and one hundred and twenty-five members of the Assembly—Senate holding over; United States Senator to elect in place of Ira Harris.

Massachusetts, November 6.—Governor, ten members of Congress and State Legislature.

New Jersey, November 6.—Five members of Congress and members of State Legislature; United States Senator to elect in place of Richard H. Stockton.

Michigan, November 6.—Governor, six members of Congress and members of Legislature.

Illinois, November 6.—State officers, fourteen members of Congress and members of Legislature; United States Senator to elect in place of Lyman Trumbull.

Wisconsin, November 6.—State officers, six members of Congress and members of Legislature. United States Senator to elect in place of Timothy O. Howe.

Minnesota, November 6.—Governor, two members of Congress and members of Legislature.

Missouri, November 6.—Superintendent of Public Instruction, nine members of Congress and members of the Legislature; United States Senator in place of P. Gratz Brown.

Kansas, November 6.—Governor, members of Congress and members of the Legislature; two United States Senators to elect in place of James H. Lane and Samuel C. Pomeroy.

Nevada, November 6.—Governor, members of Congress and members of Legislature; United States Senator to elect in place of James W. Nye.

Maryland, November 6.—Five members of Congress and members of Legislature; United States Senator to elect in place of John A. J. Creswell.

Delaware, November 6.—Governor, members of Congress and members of the Legislature.

New Hampshire, March 12, 1867.—Governor, three members of Congress and members of the Legislature; United States Senator to elect in place of Daniel Clark.

Connecticut, April 4, 1867.—Governor, four members of Congress and members of Legislature.

Rhode Island, April 6, 1867.—Governor, two members of Congress and members of Legislature.

From California.

(From the Enterprise.)

San Francisco, Sept. 22.

The statement that the Government had placed the steamer Vanderbilt at the disposal of Queen Emma is contradicted.

A State Convention of the friends of temperance will be held in this city on the 16th of October.

A private dispatch from William A. Allen, the California representative to the Grand Lodge of the I. O. of O. F. of the United States, now in session at Baltimore, announces the election of the following officers: Grand Sire, James P. Sanders, of New York; Deputy Grand Sire, E. N. Farnsworth, of Pennsylvania; Grand Secretary, James S. Ridgelay, of Maryland; Grand Treasurer, Joshua Vansant, of Maryland.

F. R. Amos & Co., provision merchants on Front street, made an assignment to Mark Sheldon yesterday.

As an indication of returning ease in the money market, a loan of $30,000 was negotiated on the street yesterday at one per cent. per month.

Tom Donahoe, arrested for the murder of Fred Patterson in Walla Walla, has petitioned Judge Cowles for a release on habeas corpus.

The clipper ship David Crockett sailed for Philadelphia yesterday with a full cargo of grain. This is said to be the first shipment of breadstuffs between the two ports going East. At present, our imports from Philadelphia are confined to anthracite coal.

The case of Headley, the defaulting Gold Hill agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., came up for decision before Judge Rix yesterday.

From Idaho.

Lieut. Pepoon arrived at Fort Boise on the 22d inst. Col. O'Byrne started for Oybee on the 23d with his command. Lieut. McGregor is appointed A. A. A. General for the District of Boise....Mr. J. W. Goble has also been appointed Commissioner for Altnras county, vice James Lodge resigned....The stage that left Boise City about two weeks since upset about twelve miles from Umatilla, injuring several passengers; Capt. Wm. B. Hughes, it is said, was slightly wounded, and a lady passenger had a leg broken. Further particulars expected by next stage....The rumor of an Indian raid on Catharine Creek is without foundation. The party that went in search of the Indians have returned to Ruby and Silver City, and report nobody killed or hurt....The stage running between the Dalles and Canon City was attacked by Indians on the 11th inst. and two men shot, a Mr. Wheeler and a Mr. Paige, wounding them severely; Mr. Wheeler supposed mortally. The creditors of More & Fogus have leased the mills of that firm and put them in operation.

A duel was fought at Little Rock, Arkansas, lately, between Walter Coggswell, postmaster at Wayne, and J. T. Wright, editor of the Wayne Gazette.—Their weapons were swords—the cause, jealousy. Both were frightfully mangled, having fought until the loss of blood caused them to faint. Both will die.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTINERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four central Territories.

THE Boston Post calls Brownlow's oratory "H—loquence."

ASTRONOMERS announce that a shower of meteors is looked for in November next.

B. F. TAYLOR, of the Chicago Journal, has started for Fort Kearney, and will write descriptive letters to that paper.

THE Sacramento Union has entered on its thirty-second volume, under reassuring prospects.

J. SCOTT HARRISON, son of President Harrison, and formerly a member of Congress, is the Johnson candidate for Clerk of a Court at Cincinnati.

GENERAL Don Carlos Buell arrived at Cairo, Illinois, on the 5th inst, and would remain a few days on business.

CATHOLIC SERVICE.—The Rev Father Kelly will hold Catholic service at Independence Hall at 10½ o'clock Sunday morning.

A report is gaining credence that the French Prince Imperial, who is now in his twelfth year, has been betrothed to the Crown Princess of Prussia, aged 4 years.

KEYES & ALLEN are now furnishing the finest quality of coal from their mine on the Weber. Orders given Mr. Keyes in this city will receive prompt attention.

THE Catskill Recorder says it has received some poetical "thorts" suggested "on seeing a short girl, in tilting hoops, on a high stoop, attempting to ring a bell."

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—We are informed by Father Kelly that he has completed the purchase of a lot in this city and will commence the erection of a church edifice upon the same as soon as practicable.

A FIST FIGHT.—2 men had a set2 the other day, during which 1 —ed his ☞ in the other's I's which brought him to a full ., and made him see * * *. While in a ☰ position 1 drew a † which was the .... to a general row.

IN TOWN.—Len Wines Esq., Division Agent, O. M Co., Gen. H. M. Teller, o Colorado, and hosts of folks from Idaho and Montana Territories arrived here recently; some to see this Saintly Sodom, and some to start "on their way rejoicing," as soon as fortune favors them.

THERE has been such an extensive demand for Wednesday's VEDETTE that the supply, including our large extra edition, is already exhausted; but the Weekly of next Wednesday will contain all the reading matter of that number of the Daily, and we will endeavor to have a sufficient number printed to supply all orders.

Two men while attempting to cross the river, just above Niagara Falls, on the 12th inst., had their boat struck by a squall, forcing it into the rapids and over the falls. The men were Mr. Cooper, said to be Postmaster at Chippewa, and a ferryman.

INDEPENDENCE HALL.—Last Tuesday evening Independence Hall was filled to overflowing with a large gathering of Gentile citizens of Salt Lake, anxious to adopt some measures whereby a repetition of the outrages of last Monday night might be prevented. Suitable committees to take necessary action were appointed, and after appropriate remarks from various gentlemen present the meeting adjourned until Thursday evening. The second meeting was even larger than the first. The committee on permanent organization reported that they did not deem it advisable to adopt any regular organization, as all necessary measures could be accomplished better by open action on the part of individual citizens, which opinion was concurred in by the meeting. The other committees made their reports which were accepted, the committees discharged and the meeting adjourned sine die. On both evenings the greatest unanimity of sentiment was exhibited, and all seemed determined to stand by each other in securing their just and legal rights.

From Montana.

Prof. Thos J. Dimsdale, editor of the Post, died at Virginia City on the 22d. ....260 passengers left Virginia City on the 20th, bound for the States via the Yellowstone River....The holes for the new telegraph line from Virginia City to Salt Lake have been dug 250 miles from Virginia, and the poles and wire are now being put up....Some of the citizens of Virginia denounce the Dance Houses as "infernal nuisances"....Nathan Floyd, late of Leavenworth, and one of the pioneers of Colorado and Montana, has been killed, together with seven of his companions by Indians near the Dry Fork of the Cheyenne, on the Bozeman cut-off, while en route to Montana with a train of goods.

Rules for Very Young Gentlemen who Commence life for the first Time!

1st. When yu eat always use a knife and fork (unless you have mush and milk for dinner, then exercise yure judgment,) and be sure taw open yure mouth when yure elbow crooks; in all means, quit eating when yu git thru.

2d. When yu enter a parlor, always enter at the door, (if there iz one,) and take at onst the most comfortable seat it yu use to backer, (and of course yu dew,) and aranjun yurself in the politest accomplishment of ulus firing at the basis of a coal grate, call for a spit dish, and bore the center every time.

3d. Always lead in conversashun, maintaining awl yure pints with the nervous tenacity of a rat terrier, never letting go yure hold of the attenshun yu have excited, unless it should be to spit on yure hands.

4th. Avoid modesty az yu would a mildew, and never blush, unless it is imegiately after brandee and water.

5th. When yu are in luv (which will be every now and then,) studdy poetry and pizen, tork Injun, and go into a pail dekline; then, to save yurself, take a dose of kastor ile and await the next attack with becoming composure.

6th. Never smoke an American sigar. I have known hundred ov promising young men ruined in this way. Swear a little in awl kompany; it is az French, and take at least one newspaper.

7th. Raze a mustach if yu have tew; coltise yure lip tew do it. Cultivate yure boots and tork boss. Dispize awl employment, and shudder when yu meet a mekannik.

8th. Know awl the intrigue and skandal ov the town. Bet ten dollars on everything—kall yure father "the old man," avoid every appearanse of politeness to him, and lodge out occasionally.

Perfek yureself in the above primary rules before yu presume upon the second degree, (tew much haste haz blasted menny budds of promis,) and be just with yurself. If on inquirey yu find on are not put down az a "plum," yu may conclude that yu have mistaken yure genius, and have no booes in the ornymental walks ov life.

BIG ROBBING.—A party of five Cincinnati gentlemen, while engaged in betting at Newport, a few days ago, were robbed of greenbacks, diamond jewelry, watches, certified checks, and notes of hand, valued at $100,000. Tee thieves returned the notes and checks, but retained the rest.

THERE is talk of a suit for defamation of character, to be brought by Judge Advocate Holt against Mr. Montgomery Blair, who asserted in a recent speech that he (Holt) was guilty of the execution of an "innocent woman", meaning Mrs. Surratt.

TELEGRAPHING.—There are seventy telegraph offices at New York, employing 375 persons. One hundred wires leave the city, of which thirty run to Washington. The American and Western Union Companies have altogether two thousand offices, with five thousand employes.

AT a Hebrew temple in Cincinnati pews were sold for $1.000, and premiums were bid as high as $3.500. Two hundred thousand dollars were realized—the most liberal renting in the history of edifices for divine worship in this or any other country.

KATE Josephine Bateman's property is estimated to be worth $750,000—a good return for "ten years of the life of an actress."
